Messrs. C. S. Kirk and Frank L. Henricksen are in Louisville attending the Bottlers' convention.

Mr. Abe Lacker of West Third street went to Huntington, W. Va., yesterday on a short business trip.

Hon. James N. Kehoe of this city spoke at Grayson, Ky., yesterday in the interest of the Democratic ticket.

Miss Louta Clark, head of the Millinery Department at the Bee Hive, is in Cincinnati inspecting the latest styles.

Mr. W. W. Wikoff has sold his lot in West Second street adjoining Hon. James N. Kehoe's property to Mr. George Sullivan, a C. & O. conductor, who will in the near future build a handsome house on the site.

ROBERT BOGGS DEAD

Mr. Robert Boggs, one of Aberdeen's respected citizens, died Sunday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Boggs would have been 80 years old had he lived until the 9th day of November. Besides his wife he is survived by four sons and one daughter—Thomas, William, Omar and Edward and Miss Barbara Boggs.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANK DAVIS.

Mrs. Frank Davis of Washington, Ky., died yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock at Wilson Hospital after having undergone an operation at that institution Sunday morning.

Besides her husband and one child she is survived by her father, mother, one sister and five brothers.

The remains were removed to her home yesterday morning. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

TO DROP TWO TRAINS

From L. & N. Schedule Beginning Next Sunday—May Be Put Back On Later.

Next Sunday, October 18th, the L. & N. will take off two trains, coming in and going out of Maysville. The trains to be dropped are numbers 3 and 4. No. 3 arrives at 7:35 a. m. and No. 4 departs at 8 a. m.

Superintendent Anderson was here yesterday conferring with local agent H. S. Ellis and a committee of business men regarding the matter and Mr. Anderson informed the committee that the business depression brought on by the European war forced his company to retrench and that retrenchment was the slogan all along the line. He declared, however, that later on possibly by December, when the new schedule had been tried out that the two discontinued trains might be put back on.

Of course the discontinuance of these trains is a very serious blow to Maysville business men and the traveling public, and especially so to our public schools, as a large number of the pupils come to the Maysville schools on the 7:35 train in the morning.

This is such a serious matter to the Maysville public that The Public Ledger sincerely hopes that the L. & N. management will see its way clear to place the two trains back on before the year is out.

CALLED HOME

Rev. William Webster Hall Widely Known and Beloved Minister of the Christian Church Passed To The Great Beyond.

Rev. W. W. Hall is dead. This simple announcement brings tears to many an eye and sorrow to many a heart. No preacher in Mason county was more and dearer to the public than Rev. Willie Hall. Loving, gentle and sympathetic, he made friends and retained them by his sincerity, humility and kindness of manner. How many homes did he gladden with hope by divine ministrations? To the poor, the ill and the dying his presence gave a sustaining and supporting strength as coming through him from the Savior of man.

Brother Hall was born in Mass. about 76 years ago and came to Dover, this county, in early youth with his mother, Mrs. Eliza Hall, who later married the late Langhorne Tabb, of Dover, one of Mason county's most prominent citizens and merchants. Mr. Tabb was a second father to Willie Hall and their love and esteem was mutual and good to behold.

Rev. Hall passed many years of his life at Dover, studying for the Christian ministry in early manhood and entering over 50 years of pastoral life. He had charges in a score of churches and probably officiated at more marriages and funerals than any preacher this county ever produced.

Rev. Hall's health began to decline a few years ago and a few weeks ago went to the home of his daughter in Richmond, Ky., in hopes that the change would do him good, but the Death Angel called him to Eternal rest Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. With him at the end were his wife, who was Miss Elizabeth Pickett, his daughter, Mrs. D. H. Brock, and his son Mr. Langhorne Tabb Hall. His oldest son, Mr. Pickett Hall was in Ohio and could not be located. Rev. Hall is also survived by two half sisters, Mrs. Thomas P. Anderson of Point on View Farm, Mrs. Ella Hanna, of Dover and one half brother, Mr. L. M. Tabb of St. Louis, Mo.

The remains will be brought here Wednesday morning and the funeral will be held from the Christian church this city, at 10:30 a. m. Burial in Maysville cemetery.

Rev. Maurice Waller of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by the pastor Rev. Albert E. Stahl, will have charge of the services at the church and at the grave.

EUROPEAN ARSENAL READY TO BLOW UP

London, England, Oct. 12.—The finger of the censor having twisted the tangle of news from Belgrade, just now perhaps the most potentially important scene of the fighting in the great war, the British people were forced to content themselves today with the official communication from Paris and even close analysis of this showed no marked change in the situation favoring either side.

Curzon Discusses Antwerp.

Earl Curzon of Kedleston, formerly Viceroy of India, in a speech at a war meeting at Harrow school tonight, said the taking of Antwerp was a deliberate part of the German plan.

Probably stirred by the bomb dropping exploits of German aircraft over Paris, London seems to be prepared for such visitors and notice has been served on persons living in the city near the mouth of the Thames that they should be ready to seek their shelters at the first sound of firing, as there will be no time to spread the news in a more formal way.

Drop Twenty Bombs on Paris.

Paris, Oct. 12.—A score of bombs, launched on different quarters of Paris by two German aviators yesterday, killed three civilians and injured four others.

HIGH ROLLER SUICIDES.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—Secretary of State Harry Wood, one of the Democratic Senatorial candidates at the September primary, and former operator on the Chicago Board of Trade, killed himself early yesterday morning.

WEEKLY WEATHER FORECASTS SUSPENDED.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Suspension of weekly forecasts was announced yesterday by the Weather Bureau owing to the interruption of cable reports from Europe and Asiatic ports because of the war in Europe. Interruption of cable service to Alaska has further complicated the bureau's task, it is stated, and predictions will be made only for periods of thirty-six and forty-eight hours until regular reports again are available.

And the "Pool Killer" is getting in his work by the wholesale in Europe.

The assessed value of the real estate of New York City is seven billions eight hundred millions of dollars. No wonder Tammany likes to play with it.

The Government of the United States for August, current year, cost some $3,000,000 more to operate than it did for the same month last year. Has it been worth the price?

There are now in this country 45,000 miles of electric railway. Of the states Ohio comes third with 4,154 miles. Pennsylvania and New York are ahead of Ohio in the order named.

The Brazilian Government has decided that the merchantmen of the belligerent nations, which entered Brazilian ports on the ground of the war, must be detained until the war is over.

The Supreme Court of Connecticut has decided that manufacturers may bind themselves together by penal bonds to adhere to the open shop policy, and that such agreements are enforceable.

Which would you rather be, a Mexican bandit or a European butcher? You know how you can tell the difference between them? The bandit has wings, the European butcher has fire and sword and claws and horns and hoofs—he's a devil.

"Conservative financial interests fear irredeemable money is coming," is a head line in a New York paper. We may expect most anything from the administration now in power except genuine prosperity.

According to information recently received from the Department of Agriculture, emigration of us to Canada has been halted in the last two, and more American farmers are returning from Canada than are now going there.

Harry Bryan is at large again. You can all tell when Democratic hard times arrive because William Jennings, the chief harpinger and seller of so much per, is sent forth to "spread tidings." There can be nothing more speculatively amusing than W. J. Bryan mounted on the rear end of a special train making 15 minute dashes to a howling crowd of Democrats en masse. All the clowns in Ringling's circus and a Darktown brass band, all a tootin' at once don't equal it. Lead forth the royal jackass whisper "rats" in his ear if you want to see go.

A POLITICAL REVOLUTION PREDICTED.

Congressman Nicholas Longworth said in an interview last week:

"I tried to have a vacation," said Mr. Longworth, "but I had little time for a rest. I made speeches in Massachusetts and in Maine and I found plenty of Republican enthusiasm. The business interests have awakened to the fact that conditions in this country are not such as were promised by the present Democratic administration, and the men of affairs are taking an active part in the political issues in their respective communities. The working people are also aware that the promise of good times and higher wages made by the Wilson administration is a myth, and they too, are taking more than a passing interest in political affairs. I believe the wage earner and the employer will join issues in the coming campaign and express their sentiments in no uncertain terms and will put the stamp of disapproval on present conditions."

"Have only to say that I studied conditions in the East very carefully and I am convinced there will be a political revolution which will sweep the present Democratic administration into oblivion. The attempt of the Wilson administration to place the blame for the present hard times on the European war is scoffed at by the people in the East."

"The fact that more than 15,000 men are idle in this city from the factories and shops alone is causing the people of this section of the State to sit up and take notice. In the East the button factories employed 12,000 men and women. When the present Congress took the duty off buttons every factory in the East was closed and all these wage earners were thrown out of employment. That is only one instance of the manner in which the Wilson administration has violated its promises of better times. The average workman is intelligent enough to realize these facts, and I believe they will express their disapproval at the polls on November."

THE DAILY NOVELLETTE.

On To Albania.

Onward our hero struggled;
 Onward to glory and fame;
 Onward he suffered and conquered—
 Then newspapers missed his name.

(Synopsis of preceding chapters: Our handsome hero, Simon Dreadnaught, son of the American multi-millionaire paper inventor, is flying over Belgium in his 180-horse power Postum to join the Albanian army and thus be near the idol of his dreams, Princess Swattermooch. At Aux-la-Jumey he encounters a battalion of German infantry and only saves himself by tossing the troops little German flags. He speeds on his way, through shot and shell, especially shell, apparently on the all-protecting wings of love. A hundred times he escapes death by an eighth of an inch, a thousand times by a sixteenth. The Belgian blocks fly past so swiftly that they seem like one long Belgian block. Finally, while he is racing over the Saekamaxon bridge, only six miles from Albania, a loud report directly behind him shakes the whole car, almost pitching him out on his Henry Hutt head. Dreadnaught never looks behind, but shortly after there is another report louder than the first, and then, in rapid succession, two more, each one almost knocking the Postum into a ditch.)

CHAPTER 987.

At the fourth report the car stopped, quivering. Jumping out, Dreadnaught saw that all four tires had blown out. "Oh," he said, "now I know what made those explosions!" The enemy was not chasing him after all, so he pushed the car the rest of the way.

Announcement has been made from New York that investment conditions are showing an improvement.

The mammoth aeroplane "Amerien" with which Lieutenant Porte had expected to fly across the Atlantic has been bought by England.

The Ohio motion picture men propose to fight the Democratic proposition to impose a "war tax" of $100 on every motion picture theatre owner.

There are said to be 25,000 Jews enrolled in the Russian army. Like a great many other enlisted men, they are said not to know what they are fighting for.

The announcement from Washington that President Wilson will make no speeches during the campaign has been supplemented by the statement that he will campaign by letter.

A petition containing 7,000 names has been signed in Dayton, Ohio, asking that the question of municipal ownership of the water works be submitted to the people at the November election.

Samuel Dabney Carr, aged ninety-two, one of the best known residents of Albemarle county, Va., is dead at his home, Aspen Hill, near Red Hill. He was born on the farm where he resided at the time of his death.

A suit for an injunction restraining the General Film Co. from using the title "A Pool There Was" was filed in the supreme court yesterday by Klaw & Erlanger and Robert Hilliard. Justice Gaynor granted a temporary injunction in the case.

Philip D. Armour 3d has gone to work in the buying department of Armour & Co. to learn what good beef and dogs look like "on the hoof." Then he will get a place in another department and learn how to kill and dress beef, having completed his "practical education" he will go into the general offices.

The Richmond (Va.) chapter of the Red Cross is planning to hold a meeting soon, which will be presided over by Gov. Stuart, when the campaign for relief funds and supplies in that section will be stimulated. September 17 the merchants of Richmond contributed 10 per cent. of their gross receipts to the war relief fund of the local chapter.

The first victim of the hunting season has been brought to the city hospital in Bangor, Me. Howard Thornton and Harrison Spearin were hunting on the Canadian side of the St. John's river, near Piskehegan. They saw signs of moose and separated. A short time later Spearin saw what he thought was a moose and fired. He heard a cry of pain and found he had shot Thornton in the arm.

Directing attention to the dependence of the United States on Germany for its potato supply emphasized by the European war situation, and to the fact that this country gets all its sodium nitrate from Chile, the geological survey suggests several domestic sources of combined nitrogen. One of these, it is stated, is the gas works and by-products coke ovens, which in 1912 reported a recovery of ammoniacal liquor, ammonia, ammonium sulphate valued at $9,519,268.

COFFEE CAUSES STOMACH TROUBLE AND OLD AGE

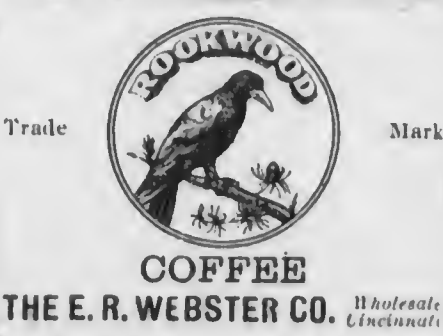

Physician Says It Interferes with Digestion and Hastens Death By Hardening Arteries.

Among other physiological effects of coffee drinking it is found that this beverage with its drug, caffeine, is one of the causes of premature old age, according to Dr. J. H. Kellogg, of the Battle Creek Sanitarium. He says:

"The evil effects of coffee on all persons of whatever age may be briefly summed up as follows:
 "First, the tannic acid in coffee interferes with digestion.
 "Second, the caffeine of coffee is a nerve poison.
 "Third, the effects produced are similar to those of alcohol. When long used, the result is damage to the poison destroying glands, particularly the thyroid gland, liver and the kidneys, as a result hardening of the arteries and premature old age. All medical authorities forbid the use of caffeine or coffee to persons whose arteries are hardened or who have high blood pressure. This condition is always present in elderly people.

"Coffee is particularly bad for young children, because the thyroid gland and other poison-destroying glands are not yet well developed. Any intelligent parent would not permit a child to use coffee."

NOTE—Among invalids and those recovering from disease and surgical operation coffee drinking is almost invariably forbidden. On the contrary the pure food-drink INSTANT POSTUM finds extensive use in hospitals and sanitariums the country over. This delicious beverage is taking the place of coffee in thousands of American homes where health is valued. "There's a Reason."

We can't buy happiness. But that is no reason why we should let it go by us.

FLORENCE W. WALLACE

Captures Denver Audience at Orpheum Theater Along With Bertha Kalich.

The Denver (Col.) News has the following to say of Mrs. Florence Wallace, Maysville's noted singer:

Take off the Mozart snowshoes dancers from the Orpheum bill this week, take off Mlle. Maryon Vandie and her company of six pretty, wonderfully graceful dancers, cancel the engagement for the week of Aileen Stanley, drop the Gouldings in a "Parisian Flirtation," even cut out the tragic net of Bertha Kalich, returned to Denver greater than ever—still there would be a bill which, if lengthened a little, would be one of which no criticism could be said.

For there still would remain Florence Wallace, the California soprano, the best "single" the Orpheum has looked in many a day, and the Lewis quintet of musicians with flute and cello, violin, piano and voice. Florence Wallace has a beautiful voice, coupled with dramatic ability.

SCHOOL NEWS

The daily prayer of every teacher should be for an enlargement of spirit. Some people want to help their friends; others want to use their friends.

It has often been said that "the good is the enemy of the best" and we find it exemplified on every hand. It is the let-well-enough-alone conservative who forms the bar to progress.

It was a wise teacher who said to her pupils: "You attend to your studies and see that your scholarship grade is right and I'll be responsible for your department."

While giving a geography lesson, a teacher called upon a precocious youngster named Johnny to tell what he could about "zones."

Johnny responded as follows: "There are two kinds of zones, masculine and feminine. The masculine zones are temperate and in-temperate, while the feminine zones are both 'horrid' and 'frigid.'"

We teachers are prone to fall into habits of saying things and doing things that, in time, become mannerisms that afford our pupils fertile topics of conversation after school hours. Sometimes these formalities militate against the efficiency of our work. One of our best pet phrases is "take up," and we use it at the beginning of every lesson. Instead of proceeding in a simple, natural way to develop a subject as we would with children in our homes, we "take up" something or other and thus inject a ponderous formality into the work that tends to stifle the natural activity of the child's mind. Blessed the teacher who does not "take up" nor "discuss," but just teaches.

GREAT PREPARATIONS MADE.

Louisville.—It has been eleven years since Lexington had the honor of entertaining this convention and these years have formed a period of unusual development in the Sunday-school world. There have been many new Sunday-schools organized, most of the schools have grown largely in the number of people enrolled. The schools have become better organized and have added many new departments. The Teacher Training Classes, the Organized Adult Classes, the Organized Teen Age Classes, the Home Departments and the Cradle Rolls have all developed into departments of the Sunday-schools during these years and each will have an important place on the program.

One of the interesting features of the State Convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association to be held in Lexington, Oct. 20-23, will be the roll call of counties.

MARY'S LITTLE LAMB.

Former Assessor John Ingles sold a lamb to J. D. Evans the other day, because it insisted on chasing foxes and wouldn't stay at home. The lamb's mother early in life discovered it and Mr. Ingles gave it to a dog that was raising a litter of bonny puppies. The lamb suckled the dog, grew up with the pups and waxed strong and fleet of limb. It rejoiced in the sports of the dogs, and wittily became quite a gay young creature. It ran rabbits to its heart's content, outstripping the dogs, but not knowing what to do with the rabbit when caught. The lamb would butt dogs to beat the band, and when the dogs tired a con it would stand at the foot of the tree and try to bark. Finally it got to chasing foxes and staying away from home so much that Mr. Ingles concluded that the safest plan was to sell it, or it might contract the habit of killing sheep.—Cynthiana Democrat.

Battle Over Lower Street Waxing Hot—
No Fatalities As Yet

Editor Public Ledger:

Mr. Wikoff, the C. & O. Agent in an article in The Ledger dated the 19th, takes particular pleasure in calling attention to my position in opposing the granting of the gift of Lower street to the C. & O.; also in regard to my acting lawfully as Councilman of the City. Let us consider a few items to see if Agent Wikoff of the C. & O. has acted lawfully.

First, I wish to call his attention to the ordinance, page 79, adopted June 16th, 1881. That said company may cut across and occupy the streets, alleys and grades of said city, upon the following line, viz: Commencing at a point on the West side of Lower street in said City to be designated in its location by said company, thence up the bank of the Ohio River passing over said street on WORKS of not less than FORTY feet span in the clear, so as at least to obstruct travel and trade upon said street to and from the river.

Second, Section 1, page 130. That any person who shall hinder, delay or obstruct any person in the discharge of his duties in the time of a fire or the alarm of fire, or who shall at any time, deface, break, injure, ride, drive over or upon any hose or other apparatus belonging to or used by a fire company, shall be fined not exceeding twenty dollars. The fire department records will cite you to two cases lately—June 8th, 1913, house owned by Joshua Gray and occupied by him; January 17th, 1914, house at Third and Poplar streets, occupied by Aaron Stokes and owned by Mike Swift. These houses were destroyed because the C. & O. freight trains were not out at the street, thus preventing the fire department from reaching the fire.

Third, That it shall be unlawful for any conductor, engineer or other person in charge or control of any steam locomotive or railroad train, to run the same within the corporate limits of the city at a greater speed than fifteen miles an hour. This ordinance is violated daily.

Fourth, It is also unlawful for any train to block a street (you can ask the citizens in the East End in regard to this).

Mr. Wikoff, if you will consult the ordinance granting the right of way, you will find you are violating the provisions of the ordinance by cutting down

How Vinol Helped Him.

Shelbyville, Ind.—"I was all run-down, had no energy, my blood was so poor I felt badly all the time and my face was covered with pimples. I am a clerk in the hotel and had to put up an awful fight to keep at work."

"I tried Beef, Iron and Wine, and other remedies without benefit. I learned of how Vinol had helped others and decided to try it. After taking the first bottle I noticed a great improvement in my condition. I continued taking it and now I am rid of all my troubles and cannot say anything too good for Vinol."—Roy F. Bird, Shelbyville, Ind.

For all run-down, weak, debilitated conditions of men and women, nothing equals Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy. It creates an appetite, aids digestion, makes pure, healthy blood. In this natural manner it builds up strength and vitality.

Try a bottle with the understanding you can get your money back if Vinol does not help you.

the span over the drive ways to river on every street leading to it. When it calls for forty feet roadway you have cut them to one-half and when it calls for twelve feet high they are now eight feet. In a short while the main grade will be useless and then Maysville will see how generous you will be in your rates on freight, when there is no river competition.

It's true however, some officers can be excused for their actions (not knowing any better) but I'll assure Mr. Wikoff that I have as much business ability as some of the Councilmen that the C. & O. thought so much of in the eighties, who gave the right of way over Bridge street; or the next set that accepted a ten foot tract of land on West Second street, where the C. & O. yards are, that has cost the city at least $5,000.00 for building and retaining walls, and two sets of pavements; also brick streets. These state men's are facts.

Mr. Wikoff is in error when he writes that Lower street has not been in use for over thirty years. Not over nine years ago when the Ohio River was frozen and the Big Kanawha was destroyed, February 21th, 1905, two barges of coal were anchored at the Lower street landing, and parties handled the coal over Lower street. Also on another occasion not many years ago Captain Hamilton used Lower street for the hauling of his coal. The Gas Company, also, Mr. Wikoff, has lately used this landing to unload their coal.

Mr. Wikoff, it's true, your road put in sixteen sidings for Maysville business men, but what's that got to do with the other 5,000 people giving you road this tract of land? Your sidings are mutual benefits to you and the business men who get it "only." The business men that gave you the right of way up Front street, an entire street in the Fifth Ward free, those were the real business men according to Mr. Wikoff. Mr. Wikoff, your payroll certainly does not include your entire list of employees. How about the class that rides about on passes and helps keep the taxes down for the C. & O. and are always for the city giving anything that the C. & O. wants FREE? Will the C. & O. give us much per square foot for Lower street as they gave for the property for depots, etc., and why not? If Lower street belonged to the adjoining property would they expect them to donate it free to the railroad?

Since we found out that Agent Wikoff is the legal attorney of the C. & O. we would ask him to have the C. & O. bridge on Bridge street four feet higher so the city can fill the hole and make the street level; decrease the speed at trains to the limit; cut the trains at every street while they are not in motion; remove the piles out of the street drive way; stop the loud and continued whistling of the freight trains at all hours of the night.

When this matter was presented before Council it was my duty as a member from the First Ward to oppose giving away Lower Street to a private corporation. It has not been my desire to carry this communication in the paper. Mr. Wikoff appeared before Council only as an agent of the C. & O. The C. & O. has so many legal representatives, and as yet none have ever appeared before Council with this subject agitated by Mr. Wikoff. When I opposed the measure at the proper place (the Council Chamber) then Mr. Wikoff next day takes it to the press denouncing me.

Respectfully submitted,
OLIVER GREENLEE,
Councilman, First Ward.

TRAGIC AFFAIR

Two Men Killed in Fight Over Dog Saturday Morning at Rugless, Lewis County.

A most deplorable affair was staged at Rugless, Lewis county, Saturday morning when Grant Cooper and Grover Dyer engaged in a heated argument over one of the men's dog, the argument terminating in both men being killed.

Both Cooper and Dyer had been bosom friends up until the time of the tragedy and no one thought of a killing, taking place. But both men had shot guns and in a sudden heat of passion Cooper raised his gun and fired at Dyer, the shot taking effect, and while falling mortally wounded Dyer emptied both barrels of his shotgun into Cooper. Both men died in a few minutes after the shooting.

The killing took place on Trace Creek, on the Kinkaid branch of the C. & O., about 22 miles southeast of Vanceburg. Cooper was about 40 years of age, a widower, and he leaves three children. Dyer was a son of Benjamin Dyer, a storekeeper at Rugless. Coroner Wells of Vanceburg was notified.
